What is Khud Mukhataar

Khudmukhtar Aurat narrates financial independent women.

For a working woman, it may mean being able to make her own financial decisions or being able to sustain herself financially.

For a homemaker, to be able to invest and sustain herself during emergencies.

Financial independence makes women feel more secure and respected irrespective of their socio-economic background. This automatically has a relay effect not just on women but their families, society, and the country at large.

Financially independent women become role models for their children and society.

Financial independence also helps women to enjoy the blessing of life after all the struggle they have gone through.
